

New Paltz Times, January 8, 2009

Diminished capacity

Have the people of New Paltz lost their minds? Ulster County survives on tourism, and people like to visit wineries. There are not many farms left to visit in the area, and farms don't attract as many visitors. Please give the winery their agricultural status.

Kim Cross

Colorado